FOREWORD

**

The Amateur Athletic Union of Australia - formerly, and until December 31st, 1927 when the New Zealand A.A.A. withdrew from membership, the Amateur Athletic Union of Australasia - is one of the oldest National Governing Bodies of Amateur Athletics in the world. It was formed in 1897, and embraced initially the New South Wales A.A.A., the New Zealand A.A.A., the Queensland A.A.A. and the Victorian A.A.A. The Tasmanian A.A.A., the South Australian A.A.A. and the Western Australian A.A.A. were subsequently admitted to membership.

The Amateur Athletic Union of Australasia was one of sixteen National Associations represented at the meeting convened in 1912 at Stockholm, Sweden for the purpose of discussing the possibility of forming an International Amateur Athletic Federation. The Union was again represented at the inaugural meeting of the Federation which took place at Berlin, Germany in 1913, when delegates from fifteen other nations were present. The Federation membership to-day totals no less than eighty-eight nations.

This slender Almanac aims to present in concise form an authentic statistical source of reference on performances considered to be of interest to athletes, athletics officials and the public. It is intended especially for the information of persons outside Australia, as it has been found that authentic information regarding our athletics standard has been in the past, difficult to obtain. The Union regrets that financial considerations preclude the publication, at present, of a more elaborate Handbook.

Athletics statisticians will be pleased to learn that Australian All-Time Ranking Lists are at present being compiled for each of the principal events. It is hoped to incorporate these in the 1956 edition of this Almanac.

With Melbourne's Olympic Games only a little over a year away, it is fitting that reference be made to the fact that Australia's Track and Field Athletes have taken part in every Modern Olympic Games - an honour which is shared with three other nations - Greece, Great Britain and the United States of America. A full list of those who have so represented Australia is given in this Almanac.

AUSTRALIAN CHAMPIONSHIPS OF 1954-55

The 10 Kilometres Cross-Country Championship of Australia was held on August 28th, 1954 at Scarborough, Perth, Western Australia, and the 50 Kilometres Road Walking Championship of Australia was held on September 18th, 1954 at Centennial Park, Sydney, New South Wales. These two events are held only biennially, a Marathon Championship and a 10,000 Metres Track Walking Championship being held in the alternate years.

Kensington Oval, Adelaide, South Australia was the venue on February 5th and 7th, 1955 of the 1954-55 Track and Field Championships of Australia. The weather conditions - extreme heat on the First Day, and a high wind on the Second Day - were not conducive to good performances.
